

34th National Conference on Physical Activity for the Exceptional Individual

Conference Speaker: Dana Bowman

On behalf of the 34th National Conference planning committee, conference attendees, and the CAHPERD Administrative Committee, I would like to thank you for being a speaker at the conference at Knott's Berry Farm. I know that a conference is only as good as its speakers and this year, with your help, we did fulfill the conference theme of STRIKE IT RICH. Rich of ideas, activities, knowledge, and information.

Feedback received has been very positive and all attendees expressed their delight with the sessions, the quality of the speakers, the useful ideas shared, the variety of subject and activities covered, the practical information, and that the sessions were Adapted Physical Education specific. I know the hotel was smaller than what we were used to and that some rooms were crowded, but as a presenter you fulfilled your commitment with the quality and excellence this conference has been known for. I thank you for your help, the time you spent to prepare your session topic, and for the enthusiasm you showed in disseminating information to your audience.

I hope that you will consider speaking again in the years to come at one of the National Adapted Physical Education Conferences. We will be Los Angeles next year, San Francisco in 2007, San Diego in 2008, and in the San Jose area 2009. Thanks again for STRIKING IT RICH in Buena Park.

With warm regards,

Perky Vetter, Conference Director
