Dear Sgt. Bowman,

Thank you so much for coming to our Ohio PTA Convention in Akron and inspiring us all to focus on our goals and not quit. You are a true motivation to all that listened to your tale of courage, determination and positive thinking. Your talk was nothing short of inspiring.

If you have never had the privilege of hearing Dana Bowman speak then you are in for a rare treat. Dana exudes confidence, electrifying his audience by challenging them to attain new heights of excellence. He is living proof of the old adage "there's no such word as can't". This amazing man is an unparalleled force for motivation and I have every respect for his talents as a speaker as well as his incredible personal courage.

Dana Bowman offers a truly inspirational insight into his life. He demonstrates in his presentation, the energy that has driven him to achieve so much. In listening to Dana you are forced to consider the limits you have set on yourself, and to search your mind and soul as to what you could potentially achieve.

His courage and self-motivation make him an absolute delight and I for one could listen to him over and over again. A truly motivational experience not to be missed.

Sincerely,
